I hereby declare that the subject translation is a true and complete translation of PCT/DE2003/003162.

On March 23, 2005, I executed a Declaration indicating that the document attached thereto was a true and complete translation of PCT/DE2003/003162.

However, it has now been called to my attention that the German-language document given to me for translation was not in fact a complete copy of PCT/DE2003/003162.
Rather, it was incomplete, since a one-sided copy was made of a double-sided document. Therefore every other page of the document was missing.

Based upon my information and belief, the attached document is now a true and complete translation.
